

Hilliards To Get New Postal Quarters

Feb 21, 1957

Preliminary sketch of proposed new post office for Hilliards.

Advertisements for construction bids were issued Wednesday for a new postal facility at Hilliards.

Florence Wilcox, postmaster, said an option on the Hoffman property on E. Main-st has been obtained by the Post Office Department for the new building site. The new building will cover about 3,000 square feet. The department will lease the building from the successful construction bidder who will purchase the site selected from the present owner.

Bids will be received in the office of Post Office Inspector E. R. Dunzweiler, Columbus, up to and including March 22, 1957.

The present post office at Hilliards is located in the Fishinger Building on W. Main-st. The village has had a post office for more than 100 years.
